achatd'art

An art buyer has to recommend and negotiate every member useful in the production of a photo (photographer, stylist, models, studio,...) This work requires a constant curiosity and open-mindedness of the artistic world on the national and international stage. The skills of Pauline Podolier, art buyer for 25 years, rely on a wide and serious photographic culture. Her clients appreciate her ability to anticipate trends, her reactivity, her expertise and her negotiating skills.
